2. Comment. The troop train hauled a tank unit of the 25th Tank Div probably to Letzling Heath for a several-day combat firing practice.

3. Comment. An identical observation has been made by another source.

4. Comment. On 21 March 1954, another source observed only the first three troop trains from Kyritz to Altengrabow.

the first troop train carried a unit of the IV Arty Corps, probably the 10th How Arty Brig (US) from Altengrabow. It can be assumed that additional contingents of the brigade returned on the other trains.
